BRITAIN TO ASK SAFETY PLEDGE FOR FOREIGNERS

If Southern Chinese Give Necessary Guarantee Soldiers Will Be Diverted to Hong Kong.

AMERICA AWAITS ANSWER BY CHEN

Reply Expected in Near Future To Invitation Extended by Kellogg for Conference.

BY ROBERT DOWSON.
(United News Correspondent.)

London, February 3.—Great Britain is ready to accede to the demand of the southern Chinese government that 20,000 British troops now on the sea en route to China, or preparing to sail, be kept off Chinese soil. Agreement is conditional, however, on certain guarantees by the southern nationalists.

A cabinet committee, headed by Premier Baldwin and Foreign Minister Chamberlain, is drafting new instructions to China's Affairs Office at Hankow. In effect they are expected to assure Eugene Chen, south Chinese foreign minister, that a word from him, guaranteeing the lives of foreigners in Shanghai and other south Chinese ports, will cause the British troops to be ordered to Hongkong, British territory, 853 miles south of Shanghai.

Attitude Explained.
While Baldwin and Chamberlain formulated what many expect will be Great Britain's most pacific offer to south China, other members of the cabinet were sent out to explain the government's attitude in speeches to the people.

A statement from Sir William Jerningham-Hicks, home secretary, who is ill at his home, was read at a mass meeting in Twickenham.

"It seems certain that the soviet government is largely responsible for the anti-British agitation in China," said the home secretary's message. "There would be a grave danger to foreigners in Shanghai if the nationalist army arrived there and the demoralized soldiers were to enter the city. This might lead to disorders on such a scale that the civil forces would be powerless to protect foreign lives and property."

"In the face of such danger the government sent troops for protection when the only alternative was to submit to violence. Great Britain is friendly to China, but we have obligations to our nationals in that country and we will carry them out fully."

New Proposals.
The new proposals which are expected to be embodied in O'Malley's instructions are being rushed to conclusion so that they may be in his hands, if possible, by Friday morning. British troops were sent because of danger to British lives seemed imminent, the proposals will explain. Chen will be asked to state whether or not he is in a position to guarantee against repetition of the outbreaks at Hankow and if he can British defense plans will be halted.

Demand of British residents of Shanghai that they be protected would be met by stationing the entire detachment at the island of Hongkong.

Radio Sends Paris Gowns To U. S. Day of Creation

BY RALPH HEINZEN.

Paris, February 3.—Science has come to the aid of the modern woman, and a gown created in Paris by a French designer during his morning's routine can be worn by an American woman in Atlanta, Akron or Albuquerque hat same evening.

Radio and Yankee ingenuity have made that possible, and this season the American dress buyers in their efforts to acquire their New York outfits with the very latest twists of women's fashion have adopted the radio as a means of sending their reports home.

The French designer has finished his dress by 11 a. m., it can be photographed and a copy sent off by noon mail plane to London. Two hours later a radio picture of the gown, complete in every detail, is on the ether between London and New York, with a few hundred words of description.

It would be only the work of a few hours to put the cloth together in Atlanta, Akron or Albuquerque, and before the newest gown of the day could be seen by Parisians, it could be worn in America. The advance of science brings the Rue de la Paix to every American doorstep.

Youthful Lord Defies Family, Weds Actress

Earl of Shaftesbury Objects to Last; Wedding Ring Too Small.

London, February 3.—(AP)—Defying parental authority, young Lord Ashley, heir to an earldom that has been famous for generations for its piety and philanthropy, today took as his bride the pretty actress, Miss Sylvia Hawkes. She only recently left a musical-comedy chorus for leading parts on the London stage.

The young couple made no concealment of their intentions to wed, but Lord Ashley's father, the Earl of Shaftesbury, clinging to the traditional opposition of the nobility to a stage alliance, vigorously objected. Apparently unable to conceive that his son was intending seriously to marry, the earl denied reports of the engagement to the last, and today he and his countess made a motor dash to London in a fruitless attempt to dissuade Lord Ashley from the marriage.

Miss Hawkes appeared nervous throughout the ceremony and shivered with cold. When signing the register in the vestry, she signed "Sylvia Ashley" instead of her maiden name and had to erase the signature and rewrite it. Lord Ashley discovered at the last moment that the wedding ring was too small and his bride had to carry it in her hand.

Starting for Biarritz for a honeymoon, Lord Ashley and his bride declared themselves "very happy."

Infant Struck By Big Truck May Succumb

Police Hold Negro Driver Pending Information as to Child's Condition.

Mary Davis, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis, of 160 Mills street, narrowly escaped death late Thursday afternoon when knocked down in front of her home by a two-ton truck, said to have been driven by Henry Nettles, of 208 Magnolia street, according to police reports.

The little girl was taken to Grady hospital where physicians stated her condition as being serious. Extent of the injuries had not been determined. Call Officers H. P. Sibley and W. A. Adair, were told that the accident was unavoidable, but due to the possibility that the child's injuries may prove fatal, the negro was arrested on a charge of reckless driving. His bond was fixed at $500.

CHINESE BELIEVE 2 QUAKE OMENS OF MISFORTUNE

Shanghai, February 3.—Two brief earthquakes, coming in the midst of Chinese New Year celebrations today, were interpreted by the superstitious natives as warnings of impending misfortune.

The two shocks were at 11:54 a. m. and 12:58 p. m., and each lasted a minute. Some windows were broken and plaster fell from walls, but the total damage was slight.

The earthquake Chinese New Year observances, which began February 1, were discontinued by the shocks, however. Many celebrants ceased chiding devils by setting off fireworks and fled to their homes.

GLADSTONE NAME STANDS UNSULLIED BY COURT VERDICT

Judge and Jury Sternly Rebuke Captain Peter Wright for Blackening His Memory.

BY CHARLES M. McCANN.

London, February 3.—The over-stuffed plush upholstered Victorian era was returned to its volume of William E. Gladstone, its greatest statesman, unsullied by the charges that in his old age he had become involved in numerous love affairs.

A judge and jury sternly rebuked Captain Peter Wright, a writer, for presuming to blacken Gladstone's memory with the charge of promiscuity with women. And by that judgment, Viscount Gladstone, 73-year-old son of the liberal statesman, was found innocent of the charge of libelling Wright.

Jury Exonerates Gladstone.
The jury, returning its verdict after deliberating two hours and a quarter, added a rider that it was "unanimously of the opinion that the evidence completely vindicates the high moral character of Gladstone."

"Then don't trouble," instructed Justice Avey, "whether the viscount's statement was malicious, as that was merely an alternative verdict."

A hearty outburst of British cheering greeted the verdict. It was stopped by stern threats to commit offenders for contempt.

"The viscount deeply appreciates the verdict," Norman Birkett, his attorney, announced formally.

While judgment was entered for the viscount, the costs were charged against Wright. They will reach approximately $40,000.

Friends crowded around the viscount and viscountess in a furor of congratulations. Wright stood alone for a moment except for his counsel before leaving the courtroom.

Judge Charges For Gladstone.
Justice Avey in summing up had strongly intimated that he thought viscount was right, as it seemed judicially obvious that remarks about Wright's life, a coward and a fool, and challenged him to sue for libel. It was this action which was decided today.

When Wright's book, "Portraits and Criticisms," appeared with its allegation against the elder Gladstone's moral character, Gladstone publicly called Wright a liar, a coward and a fool, and challenged him to sue for libel. It was this action which was decided today.

Lily Langtry Absolved.
Lily Langtry, famous on the Victorian stage as the "Jersey Lily," and called the most beautiful woman of her time, inferentially was absolved.

Clergy Split Over Student Suicide Cause

Atheism and Modern System of College Education Blamed.

Chicago, February 3.—Opinion was sharply divided among the Episcopal ministers of the Chicago diocese attending the 90th annual convention of the diocese, regarding reasons for the student suicide epidemic.

Atheism is the cause, said one; the modern system of college education is to blame, said another; student suicides are merely incidents, said several.

The Rev. John S. Killar placed the blame squarely on modern college education, saying: "The training of the students who took their lives was such that they had never given religious serious thought. When the test came they had nothing to hold fast to. The life they hoped for was not visible on the horizon, the kind of life religion and the church would have given them."

The situation was viewed in an entirely different light by Dr. William C. De Witt, dean of the Western Theological seminary of Chicago. "Student suicides," he said, "are mere incidents. Why get scared about our young people? The majority are sound."

9 FOUND GUILTY AFTER CHICAGO MURDER TRIAL

Youths Ranging in Age From 16 to 19 Face Sentences of From One Year to Life.

DEFENDANTS TREAT HEARING AS JOKE

Parents in Tears as Verdict Is Read; Murder of Peddler on Halloween Charged.

BY MAURICE MERMEY.

Chicago, February 3.—Nine youths were found guilty tonight of manslaughter in connection with a Halloween murder. They face sentences of from one year to life.

Charged with the murder of Stanley Ciesla, a peddler, the youths, whose ages range from 16 to 19 years and who throughout the trial giggled and poked fingers into each other's ribs, claimed the victim's death was accidental.

Assistant State's Attorney Scott Hogan told the jury, which received the case at 2:15 o'clock this afternoon, that "it is your duty to send them to the penitentiary for from 14 years; to life."

This was the first intimation that the state would not demand the death penalty. When the trial opened two weeks ago the prosecution indicated the death penalty would be demanded.

Edward Glassman and John Janowicz, if they are sentenced to serve from one year to life in the penitentiary—as the law provides—they will be eligible to parole after 11 months.

Joseph Stancil, Matthew Busek, Andrew Kosowski, Vincent Medzey, Felix Sebastian, Henry MacGreen, Edward Glassman and John Janowicz, if they are sentenced to serve from one year to life in the penitentiary—as the law provides—they will be eligible to parole after 11 months.

In summing up the case for the prosecution, Hogan said: "Have you before you nine hoodlums who conspired to 'jackroll' their victim, and who are convicted of killing to rob by the fact that the watch victim was found in their possession."

Sought Halloween Fun.
"You hold within your power the fate of nine unfortunate boys who ran into tragedy on a night when they had gathered for Halloween fun," said John Prystalski, defense attorney told the jury.

The evidence indicated that Ciesla, Casimir Swast and Martin Mazur were walking together on Halloween night when they were attacked by a group of boys. The prosecutor said Ciesla had been robbed of $40—establishing a motive for the attack. Swast and Mazur today identified the youthful defendants as the nine who had attacked them.

When the trial opened, Hogan and Louis Geiman, also an assistant state's attorney, demanded that the youths hang for the murder. "We will prove by competent testimony that this was a cold-blooded and deliberate murder," Geiman had said.

SENAE FORCED TO TAKE ACTION ON FARM BILLS

Farm Bloc's Threat To Obstruct Legislation for Remainder of Session Brings Consent.

PASSAGE IS SEEN BY BOTH HOUSES

Fate of Coolidge May Depend Upon What Action He Takes When Measure Reaches Him.

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER.

Washington, February 3.—By threatening to block all legislation for the remainder of the session, the farm bloc today forced the senate to its knees and got the famous McNary-Haugen bill up for consideration.

The house previously had arranged to take up the same bill Monday.

Thus at the tag end of the 60th congress, the farm relief question, which has been buffeted all over the capitol for seven years, comes to a showdown with the practical certainty of a final vote in both houses before congress expires March 4.

The present McNary-Haugen bill is the same equalization bill for financing export of surplus crops that has been battered around congress since the post-war deflation in 1919-20. It has on a little more makeup this year, and its history is a little more clouded, but essentially it is the same measure that has made the 850 politicians we red.

Provisions of Bill.
The bill provides for a revolving "stabilization fund" of $250,000,000 to dispose of surplus crops in cotton, wheat, corn, rice and swine—designated as basic agricultural commodities. This fund would be administered by a federal farm board of 12 men appointed for six-year terms, plus the secretary of agriculture, an ex officio member.

Sponsors of the bill deny it is a price-fixing measure, or that it subsidizes agriculture. The $250,000,000 revolving fund to be used in carrying surplus crops out of the country is to be paid back through equalization fees levied on farmers producing surplus crops. The history is that export of this surplus will hold up domestic prices so that the farmers can afford to pay a small extra fee in return for the surplus.

Objections have been made that this will increase the cost of living. "Those who oppose this legislation on the ground that it may increase the cost of living are apparently forgetting the farmer's crops from him at less than a living price," said the house agriculture committee in recommending the bill.

"The most important foods and raw materials are now being sold from the farm at less than it cost to produce them. As has been pointed out, the real value which the farmer gets for his produce is now 20 per cent less than it was before the war. The real cost to the consumer lies elsewhere in the price the farmer gets. The margin between the farmer and the consumer has approximately doubled in the case of most of the farm staple crops since the war."

Threats, cajolery and much under cover jockeying were necessary to get the farm bill before the senate at a reserve of living prices. The senate each has a pet bill which he wants to jam through before March 4.

Several times McNary, of Oregon, coauthor of the bill, announced unanimous consent agreements to fix a time for a final vote, a time-saving proposal. But each time he met with objection on the floor. Then he prepared a cloture move which would have brought up the bill under a limited debate rule. With this as a threat, held in reserve, McNary forced the senate to vote on taking up the bill without any time limitation on debate. He won 66 to 14.

Eight republicans and six democrats voted against taking up the bill. The republicans were Frank O. Lowden, Massachusetts; Hale, Maine; Keyes, Vermont; Metcalfe, Rhode Island; Moses, New Hampshire; Wadsworth, New York; Welles, Maryland. Democrats were Blewett, South Carolina; Bruce, Maryland; George, Georgia; Gerry, Rhode Island; King, Utah; Walsh, Massachusetts.

Hard Decision for Coolidge.
Probalion of the bill, both houses will pass the bill and put it up to President Coolidge—a decision that will not be easy for the man in the white house.

The whole situation is pervaded by presidential politics. The farm bloc believes that President Coolidge desires another term and will not offend the farmers with a veto, even though Secretary of the Treasury Mellon has denounced the measure as unsound. The farm bloc is holding in reserve the threat of Frank O. Lowden's candidacy against Coolidge. Lowden has been built up by the farmers and a white house veto of the McNary bill would be sufficient to start his boom—a situation that would prove a difficult fight for Coolidge at the next national convention. This is a fight between the Coolidge and Lowden principles of farm relief. Lowden is behind this bill.

These presidential angles, while subdued in formal debate, are prominent in cloak room discussions and they are highly important if hidden factors in shaping the result on the floor. The big agrarian fight just opening cannot be fully understood without keeping these factors in mind.

Senate debate on the bill opens tomorrow. How long it will be before there is a vote is impossible to tell, as there is no limitation on debate under the present arrangement.

STREET DUEL STAGED BY BROTHERS-IN-LAW BRINGS DEATH TO ONE

CHARTER CHANGE FOR MORE SCHOOL MONEY IS SOUGHT

Committee Appointed To Confer With City Attorney; Higher Tax Rate Is Advocated.

With a special committee already appointed and instructed to confer with City Attorney James L. Mayson regarding a change of the city charter to get more money for Atlanta schools, it was said Thursday night that the first definite step in a solution of the financial problem of the public educational system has been taken.

This special committee is composed of two persons—one from the board of education and another from the school committee of city council—and is the outgrowth of appointment of a subcommittee of three from each of these bodies at a joint meeting held Thursday afternoon. This was an executive session and the public and newspapermen were barred at the request of the school board, according to reports leaking from behind the closed doors of the meeting.

The subcommittee is composed of W. D. Hoffman, chairman of the current expenditures committee of the board of education; W. W. Gaines and Dr. R. M. Eubanks, respectively member and president of the board; Alderman J. Allan Couch, chairman of the school committee of city council; W. L. Moore and Horace Russell, members of the school committee of council.

Met Thursday Night.
A meeting of the subcommittee was held Thursday night in the office of Horace Russell and it was definitely decided that continuation of the school system in Atlanta hinges mainly on one point—the acquisition of additional funds for operation.

Regardless of what other proposal is submitted to the people, and it seemed to be the sense of those present to let the people decide just what changes are made, an increase in the tax rate to provide more school money is inevitable, it was said.

Those who attended the session declined to discuss what happened or what it is understood that they are persistent reports to this effect establish beyond question the fact that a raise in tax rate or a special school tax levy is being discussed and is favored.

Both Attorneys.
Names of those who will confer with Mr. Mayson were not made public, but it is understood that both are attorneys, and will assist in drawing a paper to be submitted to council, the people and the state legislature changing the city charter first to secure more money and incidentally to make such changes as are agreed upon by the joint committee.

Both sections of the special subcommittee, the board and the city council committee, are in accord that the department must have more money to keep pace with the ever growing demand for public school advantages in Atlanta. This is necessitated by the fact that Atlanta itself is growing and additional facilities must be provided. It, too, is augmented by what the administration department and the board of education term "an

Daddy Calls For Reporters After Arrest

Browning Gives Bond in Connection With $250,000 Damage Suit.

New York, February 3.—After a brief lull following the close of his separation suit against the former Peachtree Heenan in White Plains, old Daddy Browning, the wealthy real estate dealer, came skipping back into the news Thursday night with the announcement that he was under arrest.

Two hours later he called the reporters in to announce that he had raised $10,000 bail and was a free man again.

Browning's arrest was on a civil warrant in connection with the quarter million-dollar damage action started against him by Arthur L. Mefford, a newspaper reporter. Mefford claims Browning damaged his reputation by telling other reporters that he had kidnapped Mary Spas, the little girl who figured in one of Browning's early adoption schemes.

"I guess they wanted to get a picture of me going to jail," Browning said. "But you know me—I never back down, not even at a camera. I went right along and put up the bond."

Mefford claims that instead of kidnapping Mary Spas he "saved" her from the wiles of the semi-pro adoptionist.

Movie Usher Here Inherits Neat Fortune

Youth Gets $35,000 Under Uncle's Will—But Keeps on Ushering.

BY J. RUFUS HARDY.

Springtime called and Dame Fortune smiled her sweetest for Woodson C. Mitcham, 312-a-week usher at Keith's Georgia Thursday, but he didn't even take a holiday.

Woodson inherited $35,000 from the estate of his uncle, Wilson B. Clegg, of Jacksonville, Fla., he was notified Thursday. Was he happy? Well, who wouldn't be?

The young fortune came as a surprise package for young Mitcham, although he knew his uncle, he had not seen him in a long while and knew nothing of his financial affairs.

He was notified of his good fortune at the theater when attorneys for his uncle's estate in Florida called for him. Wondering what he "had done" to be called by lawyers, he went to the office and was told that he was heir to what would be a fine fortune for anybody whose salary is reckoned on a weekly basis.

Although spring was in the air and called to him just like countless others Thursday, he went right back to the theater and worked the rest of the day. Hundreds of patrons who went to the Georgian Thursday night little suspected that they were being shown to their seats by a young plutocrat.

Mitcham plans to buy "mother and dad a home." That ought to be plans enough for a 20-year-old boy on the first day after inheriting more money than he could make usurious, at his present salary, before his hair is white.

Mitcham seems to be as demure as he is estate. He expects to keep right on working on his old job and go to school in the mornings.

LAST SURVIVOR OF JOHN BROWN GUARDS IS DEAD

Harrisburg, Va., February 3.—(AP)—Dr. James L. Avis, last survivor of the guards of John Brown when he was prisoner at Charleston, W. Va., for trial, died here today of the infirmities of old age. He was 83 years old.

Dr. Avis was a son of Captain John Avis, sheriff of Jefferson county, who appointed him as one of the guards of the abolitionist prisoner. He not only witnessed the execution of John Brown, but took part in his capture with the company commanded by his father.

Coming to Harrisburg in 1860, Dr. Avis established a drug store, which he has operated for the past 37 years. He was a brother of the late Congressman S. B. Avis, of Charleston, W. Va.

WILL SPEND REST OF LIFE IN JAIL FOR TAKING $14

New York, February 3.—Edward McDonnell, a 31-year-old iron worker who, with Charles Woodruff, 34, took $14 away from a taxicab driver, was sentenced today to spend the rest of his life in prison, due to the fact that he was a fourth offender and therefore, under the new Baughman law, had to be imprisoned for life.

T. C. Kervin, on Hospital Bed, Admits Firing Bullets That Killed Henry Sanders.

SAYS SLAIN MAN FIRED FIRST SHOT

Police, Called to Scene, Find Sanders Dead in Street and Kervin, Wounded, Nearby.

One man is dead with three pistol bullets in his body, and his brother-in-law is in Grady hospital under police guard with a bullet in his high, the result of an alleged dispute over whisky which terminated late Thursday night in a shooting duel on New York avenue near Glenn street.

The dead man is Henry "Bud" Sanders, 29, of 630 Stewart avenue, a world war veteran. The wounded man, admitted slayer of Sanders and husband of the dead man's sister, is T. C. Kervin, 27, of 573 Middle street.

Four shots were fired during the affray, a shot from a .32 caliber pistol in the hands of Sanders taking effect in Kervin's right thigh and sending him to the pavement partly paralyzed. Grasping his own pistol, said by police to have been of .38 caliber, Kervin sent three shots into Sanders' body, one striking his skull and resulting in a fracture, a second plunging through his right arm below the shoulder and the third penetrating his right thigh.

Startled residents near the scene of the shooting summoned police and Call Officers Eugene Head and J. H. Crankshaw responded to find Sanders already dead and Kervin writhing in pain on the curb.

Rushed in Blanchard Brothers' ambulance to Grady hospital where attendants declared the thigh wound to be not dangerous, Kervin readily made a statement to police. He said that Sanders had instigated the fight after accusing him, Kervin, of stealing whisky from him.

"Sanders threatened my life twice," Kervin told police. "Once early in the evening he said he was going to get me and later he said he would kill me if he ran across me again."

Story of Shooting.
Shortly after the alleged second threat, Kervin said, he had climbed into his own automobile and was driving alone on Glenn street when Sanders, in his car, drove directly in front of him and brought his machine to a halt.

Sanders then alighted, Kervin declared, and he decided to step out of his car also. As he did so, Kervin said he saw Sanders draw a pistol.

The association will also see to have Fair street widened and saved as a part of the Stone Mountain boulevard, and will endeavor to have Courtland street and Washington street, which run into each other at Edgewood, changed to Washington boulevard, north and south.

To Wait on County.

A delegation from the association, composed of Edward W. Martin, J. L. McCord, John Miller, I. Leonard Crawford and McWhorter Milner, will wait on the county commission next Wednesday in an effort to have Lal's avenue from Elizabeth to Ashland street covered with a capping of asphalt, the concrete street foundation having already been laid.

Resolutions of regret on the death of Colonel William Lawson Peel, who was one of the most active members of the association, were adopted.

C. F. Chapman acted as secretary in the absence of Mr. Hayes, who was ill. Entertainment was furnished by Colonel Warren Howard, of Decatur, who played several piano numbers.

Atlanta To Bask In Smiling Spring Once More Today

Spring styles in weather are on display at the United States meteorological station in the Atlanta Trust company building. The inspection of the public is invited by C. F. von Herrmann, weather man, to the very latest modes to arrive from Dame Nature's temperature shop.

Atlanta will be wearing clear and warm weather, with that chic dash and verve so dear to southern hearts, for the next two days, at least, after which a new style may be tried on by Miss Gate City.

Garbed in rich sunshine, with temperatures of from 56 to 74 degrees for trimming, Atlanta felt the true effect of spring Thursday, her pulses leaping and heart throbbing as though the sun had really begun to rise.

One really needed to look at the calendar Thursday to be reminded that it is still February; that March winds, cold and bitter, are still to blow, and that an icy coating may again hold the city in its grasp before chill winter is done with fair Atlanta. For the day was warm, the sun beamed its brightest, and windows in all office buildings were opened to the breeze.

After all, spring is not far off. First indications of the coming season of budding trees and landscapes are in the air in the shops of spring styles, and the cutting of prices on winter apparel.

Temperature today will range between 56 and 75 degrees, according to Mr. von Herrmann, and, if the weather man is a good judge, overcoats may be left at home.

Digestant Given Strong Indorsement

Strong praise for Digestant is being heard from hundreds of people who have tried the new indigestion remedy. "Digestant certainly knocks out indigestion in a hurry," and "I never saw anything like it," are typical expressions.

"Digestant is certainly popular with my customers," declares one well-known druggist. "So far I have not heard one unfavorable criticism. This is indeed remarkable. It is seldom that we have the pleasure of selling any product that is so universally satisfactory."

"Before I took Digestant I had to take a purgative every day," says a well-known express company employee. "but now my food digests so well that I never have to take medicine."

"Digestant has stopped a chronic case of indigestion that had me in its grip for eight years," declares another user.

These and many other such statements continue to come voluntarily to the Digestant office. They all speak gratefully of the benefits received from Digestant, and prove still more conclusively its remarkable value in overcoming all forms of indigestion.

Digestant is a pleasant liquid medicine and contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs. It immediately neutralizes the poisonous stomach gases, stopping harmful fermentation and relieving the strain on the digestive organs. Take it after meals in chronic cases. Keep a bottle at home and office for use whenever your stomach gets "upset." You will be delighted with your first dose.

Digestant is for sale by all good druggists at 50 cents and $1 per bottle; at soda fountains, 10 cents for individual dose. Mfd. by Inter-State Laboratory, Atlanta.—(adv.)

ILLINOIS CITIZEN DIES IN MARIETTA AFTER ACCIDENT

The body of Hilbert P. Adamson, who died Thursday in a Marietta hospital of injuries received in an automobile accident there Saturday, was brought to Atlanta by H. M. Patterson & Son, undertakers, prepared for interment and sent to his home, Rockford, Ill., Thursday night.

Adamson and a fellow townsman, Erlend Peterson, were injured last Saturday night as the car in which they were returning home from Florida was struck by an N. C. & St. L. train at the Kennesaw crossing in Marietta. Adamson was seriously injured and Peterson was badly bruised. Both were removed to a Marietta hospital, where Adamson died, and where Peterson is recovering, it is said.

The accident was caused by a heavy fog and ignorance of the presence of the crossing, Peterson said.

CHARTER CHANGE FOR SCHOOLS SOUGHT

adequate and modern" system for which funds must be provided. Several suggestions were made Thursday at the two sessions. One is that the mayor and the chairman of the school committee be immediately made ex-officio members of the board of education, both having a veto power over all board questions as he has at present over council. When the board is overridden by a two-thirds vote of the board as he can now by council, under this suggestion.

Another was that representation on the board to six members, and to form school districts of two wards each throughout the city. The districts to nominate members to the board and they being elected to their posts by a vote of the citizens.

Still another would provide tax districts and permit the levy of special taxes for maintenance of schools. This would not mean a direct increase in taxes but would permit school authorities to levy taxes for school purposes.

Goes to Council.

And out of this mass of suggestions, which, it is said, run the scale from total abolition of the board, which has already been summarily rejected, to making it a complete and divorced department of the city government with a special tax levying power, the sub-committee will submit within the next few days the plan it believes to be the best. When the plan is introduced in council, it will have the backing of the entire school committee.

The citizens' advisory committee was asked to join in the meeting Thursday, but did not participate. Harold Hirsch, chairman of the citizens' committee, was out of the city, and other members failed to take part in the session.

$10,000,000 Loew Theater Building Program in South To Be Directed in Atlanta

City To Be Headquarters for Pretentious Expansion
Work To Start Soon
All Over South.

All activities of Loew's, Inc., in the southern states, from Virginia to Texas, will be directed from southern offices, which will be established in Atlanta between March 1 and 15, it was announced Thursday by E. A. Schiller, vice president of Loew's, Inc., who stopped overnight here en route to New Orleans.

Lionel H. Keene, now assistant to Mr. Schiller in the Loew's New York offices, will be in charge of southern offices as southern representative. Included in the activities to be directed from Atlanta will be a construction program amounting to more than $10,000,000 consisting largely of new theaters, one of which is to be erected in Atlanta.

In announcing establishment of southern offices, Mr. Schiller also stated that Loew's, Inc., is planning further expansion in the southern states, this program to include establishment of Loew theaters in many towns in Georgia, Alabama and parts of North Carolina. At present Loew's, Inc., operates theaters only in key cities in the south.

Schiller was not ready to make public details of the plans for the construction of a magnificent theater in Atlanta on property recently acquired, which includes the entire block in which Loew's Grand theater now is located. He stated, however, that plans have reached a stage where it is certain that the new Loew theater here will contain 4,000 seats and will be the largest in the south.

"We only acquired titles to the property involved about 30 days ago, hence have not had time to perfect building plans," Mr. Schiller said. "It is certain, however, that we will give Atlanta one of the finest theaters in the entire south. We also expect to build new theaters in Houston, Dallas and San Antonio soon and at Nashville later."

In the new southern headquarters which will be established here a large office force will be employed which will include a unit of the construction department of the Loew organization. Mr. Keene, who comes as the general representative of Loew's, Inc., in the south, formerly was located in Atlanta at the time Mr. Schiller was the head of the southern department. When Mr. Schiller went to New York six years ago to become general representative for Loew's, Mr. Keene went with him as his assistant and has served in this capacity since that date. Mr. Keene is closely identified with Loew's affairs in all parts of the south and has a wide acquaintance among theatrical and amusement men. Howard McCoy, who has served as division manager in the south, has resigned, and Mr. Schiller announced plans for location of southern headquarters here. Mr. Schiller stated that Manager Thomas H. Lane, of Loew's Grand, would continue as Loew's Atlanta representative, serving independently of the southern headquarters in the same capacity he has served in the past.

Establishment of Loew's southern headquarters in this city will mean big things for this city theatrically, according to Mr. Schiller, who said the office would be located here because of Atlanta's strategic location. Mr. Schiller expressed much pleasure over the location here as he is a citizen of Atlanta, his family lives here. He served for many years as head of the southern offices here.

At present Loew's, Inc., operates more than 400 theaters in all parts of the world having just opened a chain of thirty-two theaters in Brazil. The organization operates theaters in Canada, England, France, Germany, Belgium, Switzerland, Holland, Italy, Cuba and the United States. In the south the Loew theaters are located in Atlanta, Richmond, Norfolk, Nashville, Memphis, New Orleans, Dallas, Houston and San Antonio. Evansville, Ind. also will be included in the territory covered by the new Atlanta office.

OFFICER CHARGED WITH ATTEMPTING TO EXTORT MONEY

Plain horse sense exercised Thursday night by Abe Leverett, grocer, of 306 Capitol avenue, saved his delivery boy, Charles Crowder, from losing a perfectly good $5 in cash and caused the arrest of Supernumerary Police Officer L. R. Gatliff, on charges of disorderly conduct by attempting to extort money from Crowder, according to detectives.

"I want $5, please, Mr. Leverett," the negro delivery boy said Thursday night after returning from his round of the customers.

"Yes, and for what?" Mr. Leverett asked.

"If I don't get it, they'll put me in jail. The officer said he would let me off for $5," the boy replied.

Mr. Leverett smelled a mouse. "Go on," he urged the delivery boy, "tell me some more."

The boy's story was soon told, consisting of a statement that Officer Gatliff stopped him for having only one cent on his truck. According to the boy's tale to Mr. Leverett, the officer informed him that he had violated a traffic ordinance, and that it would cost him $50 if carried to police station.

"But I'll let you off light this time. Just give me $5 and we'll call it settled," the boy alleged that Officer Gatliff said. On Crowder's protest that he didn't have the money with him, Officer Gatliff is alleged to have told him to get the money and meet him at Capitol avenue and Woodward avenue at 10 o'clock Thursday night.

The delivery boy then asked Mr. Leverett for the money, but Mr. Leverett, becoming suspicious, called the detective bureau, and Detectives approaching Gatliff's car at Capitol and Woodward, the boy handed him the money. Gatliff, police said, accepted the bill, but was startled when Detective Cody stepped up from the dark shadows nearby and pushed the boy aside. Mr. Cody took the bill from Gatliff's hand, and got in the car beside him, while Detective Chester came up from the other side of the street.

"Drive to the police station," Detective Cody said. And, in a few minutes, Gatliff was docketed on charges of disorderly conduct. He furnished $500 bond. He says the negro was paying him back money he had lent him.

JURY CONSIDERS LASTINGER'S FATE

Douglas, Ga., February 3.—(AP)—The case of Gaines Lastinger, on trial here for participation in the lynching of Dave Wright last August, was in the hands of the jury late tonight.

Failing to reach an agreement at 10 o'clock, the jurors were sent to bed for the night with no indications of an early verdict being agreed upon. Another jury was immediately called for the trial of Tilden Smith, another alleged participant in the mob.

Counsel for the defense and state continued their arguments when court opened this morning to complete the trial of Lastinger. The trial has been bitterly fought and has given occasions for heated disputes between counsel for the defense and state.

EAST COAST TRAIN KILLS 2, HURTS 2

Fort Lauderdale, Fla., February 3. (AP)—Two persons were killed and two others seriously injured here when a southbound Florida East Coast passenger train struck a sedan this morning.

Guy W. Brubaker, superintendent of junior high schools in Broward county, and Mrs. B. B. Cooper, a substitute teacher, died shortly after reaching the hospital. Mrs. Jennie Lind Davis and Miss Ada Gilmore, two other passengers of the car, suffered several cuts and broken bones.

The sedan, being driven by Mr. Brubaker, was going west over the railroad tracks taking the teachers to the Davis school, when the train struck it. The car was dragged more than 50 feet before it was cast aside, a total wreck.

J. B. Wilson, flagman on the crossing where the accident occurred, stated that he had used every effort to stop the automobile and that he finally had to jump to save himself from being hit.

A coroner's jury has been impaneled and will meet Saturday afternoon to investigate the accident.

Brubaker came to Fort Lauderdale about a year ago from Las Animas, Colo., where he taught school.

Miss Gilmore and Mrs. Davis recovered consciousness about two hours after the accident but were unable to give any account of the mishap. Train No. 87, which struck the automobile, was piloted by Engineer W. J. Morris who has been in the employ of the railroad for 16 years. William Croghan, was the conductor.

The railroad track crosses fourth street in no way obstructed and approaching trains can be seen for several blocks.

Winner of Prize At Show of Cats Upsets Capital

Washington, February 3. (AP)—The national capital's fashionable cat show, whose entrants range from the blue ribbon lap variety to the nocturnal alley prowler, has come to a close, but a congressional dispute has arisen over the route taken to the show by long-missing "Moby Dick," a brindle feline exhibited by the children of Senator Bayard, of Delaware.

It seems that "Moby Dick," which incidentally carried away the ribbon with her pal, "Desperate Ambrose," was once owned by former Representative and Mrs. Reed, of West Virginia. The cat, or one closely resembling it, was stolen from the rear of their home about a year ago, they said.

"How old is the cat?" Mrs. Reed asked the children attending her cage. "I do not know," they replied, adding, "if you want any information you can see Senator Bayard."

Further inquiry developed that the children had purchased "Moby Dick" at a pet store and were greatly attached to the animal. Both families were considerably upset over the incident, but Mr. Reed said he considered it closed, and added it would be "ridiculous" to consider that any reflection had been cast on "Moby's" present owners.

HOUSE TO PROBE JUDGE'S CONDUCT IN LIQUOR CASES

Washington, February 3. (AP)—Hearings on impeachment charges against Federal Judge Frank Cooper, northern district of New York, will start Wednesday before the house judiciary committee, it was announced today.

Judge Cooper will be summoned as a witness.

The impeachment was asked by Representative LaGuardia, of New York, republican, who charged the jurist with aiding federal prohibition agents to entrap rum runners by violation of the prohibition law.

Judge Cooper was pictured as having full knowledge of undercover activities in northern New York, which consisted of federal agents smuggling liquor from Canada to gain the confidence of rum runners to obtain evidence.

JEFFERSON FARMERS CASH IN ON CREAM

Louisville, Ga., February 3. (Special.)—The shipments of sour cream from the stations recently started up in this county by the farm agent, W. Hill Hesch, are more successful than even anticipated. Similarly from Louisville the shipments on Tuesday of this week amounted to about $85 as compared to the first day's shipment of only a few dollars—per car.

The farmers are turning to the cow and hen as factors in solving the money question in Jefferson county.

Thousands who have piles don't know that quick and permanent relief can be accomplished with internal medicine. Cutting or any amount of treatment with ointments and suppositories will not remove the cause.

Rad circulation causes piles. There is stagnation of blood circulation in the lower bowel and a weakening of the parts. Dr. J. S. Leonard found the remedy and called his prescription HEM-ROID. Dr. Leonard tried it in many, many cases with a marvelous record of success, such a wonderful record that HEM-ROID is now sold by druggists everywhere under a rigid money-back guarantee.

Don't waste any more time with outside application. Get a package of HEM-ROID from Jacobs' Drug Stores today. It has given quick and lasting relief to thousands and should do the same for you. (adv.)

Smith To Lecture Tonight on Pulpit Work in Russia

"The moment you are conscious of your need, salvation is yours." This was the invitation held out by Rev. Oswald J. Smith, author-evangelist, as he preached the final sermon of his series on "Salvation" Thursday night, at the Gospel tabernacle on Capital avenue.

Tonight the evangelist expects to draw one of the largest crowds of the campaign when he delivers his illustrated lecture upon his experiences in the Russian mission fields and his travels over other parts of continental Europe. He preached at points in Russia with armed sentries posted at either side of his pulpit ready to halt him should he offend. These and other experiences he will describe and present on the screen.

Conversion is the greatest change in a person's life, the minister declared Thursday night. Conversion is a rebirth into the spiritual world and is a crisis experience, like physical birth, he said. "I can't understand it, but it is sufficient for me that it is God's work."

The revivalist will close his campaign next Sunday with services at the Gospel tabernacle morning, afternoon and evening.

AT THE THEATERS

Erlanger Theater.

"Ben Hur"—Frank W. Gregory, a Crawfordsville, Ind., reporter, received from General Lew Wallace the first news of the forthcoming publication of "Ben Hur," 40 years ago. One day the reporter called, acceptance of his story had just come to the general from Harper and Brothers, for he said to the questioning newspaper man: "I've got a scoop for you. Send me your notebook and I will write it down." Here is what he wrote:

"The title of the book is 'Ben Hur,' a tale of the Christ. The hero is a Jew. The scene is variously laid, but chiefly in Antioch and Jerusalem. It opens with the birth of Christ and concludes with His crucifixion. The 30 years interval between the birth and entry of Christ upon His mission is filled with necessary demoralization which prevails in the world. The book is orthodox, recognizing Christ as the Son of God. The Harper Brothers of New York are the publishers, and the copy has been delivered to them. The book will be issued as soon as possible. The author began the book before his appointment to Mexico, and one-fourth of it was written in that country. Whatever may be said of it, it is original. I believe there has never been anything like it."

The first advance notice of "Ben Hur" appeared 46 years ago and it was substantially the way the book was advertised and the stage drama and the current film spectacle put forth.

The Rialto.

"While London Sleeps"—Of all the screen stars who have a firm hold on their popularity, Kin-Tin-Tin seems to have the firmest grip. "While London Sleeps," his latest production, at the Rialto theater, explains why this is, in thrilling and realistic fashion, as this Lincolnton melodrama unfolds on the screen.

Loew's Grand.

Vaudeville and Pictures—Fun is the dominant note on the vaudeville bill at Loew's Grand theater this week, where Al Herman, famous black face comedian is the headliner. Al Herman is a past master in fun-making and as a singer of comic songs. Another great act on the bill is that of the seven Kikuta Japs, Oriental wonder workers in a varied program of novelties. Other acts on the bill of merit are Clifton and Brent in "Ruhber Legs and Rubber Noses," and more. The picture is "Valencia," with charming Mae Murray.

The Forsyth.

"Love 'Em and Leave 'Em," accepted as the best comedy since the war, a play that is written about the fortunes and misfortunes of department store employees, is a veritable lesson in "slangage or slangology." Of course it is a comedy; it has to be, and it is more than that. It is a cleverly written play with sufficient situations to cram more genuinely fresh wit and humor and more whole some laughs into it than has been seen in this city in years.

Miss Ellis Baker, John Warner, Rhoda Drevel, Lawrence Keating and others are starring in roles which this week offer them limitless opportunities.

Keith's Georgia.

Vaudeville and Pictures—The boys and the girls at school are well as those older "boys" who like to feel young are having a good laugh this week at Keith's new Georgia theater over the presence of "Play Bill." It deals with the players in a game and serves to introduce several well known artists, including "Babe" Ruth.

They are miniature figures on a stage built upon the regular stage. It's a great game while it lasts, and the umpire is left in the field while the players hurry to the clubhouse. On the screen this week is "The Prisoners of the Storm," with House Peters.

The Metropolitan.

"Twinkletoes"—London's famous waterfront slum, the Limehouse district, glorified in Thomas Burke's most fascinating stories. The basis of Colleen Moore's latest starring vehicle "Twinkletoes," which is attracting crowded houses to the Metropolitan theater this week, Kenneth Porter appears in the leading male role opposite Colleen in this picture and his splendid work is being warmly lauded by Atlanta playgoers.

The Tudor.

"Desert Green"—In his latest picture, "Desert Green," now being shown at the Tudor, Yakima Canutt, champion rider of the world, portrays the role of a reckless young Texas ranger who rides fearlessly into the midst of a gang of the toughest desperados on the border, and tames them single-handed, breaking up forever a bandit gang who had run wild in their greed for gold.

The Howard.

"Paradise For Two"—A rip-roaring comedy drama, is the screen feature at the Howard this week. The ever pleasing Richard Dix as Steve Porten, the handsome and affluent young bachelor, who never can say no to the pretty young things who panhandle him for money, adds another ray of light to his shining star of popularity. The Public stage attraction is one of the finest yet. The Royal Mountain Ash Welch choir.

Tenth Street Theater.

"The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," an epic tale of surging passion from the wide plains of Argentine through the fascinating frivolities of pre-war Paris into the blazing turmoil of the German invasion of northern France, is playing its last time today at the popular Tenth Street theater. Rudolph Valentino, late popular screen idol, is featured in "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse."

Palace Theater.

"The Sea Beast," John Barrymore's latest picture, which is playing for the last time today at the Palace theater, is an epic of the 1840 whalers adapted from Herman Melville's novel, "Moby Dick." Barrymore appears as Ahab Celey, who loves a missionary in Java and whose lovely romance is turned into tragedy of bitter vengeance when a rival's treachery plunges him into the jaws of a whale.

West End Theater.

"Men of Steel," Milton Sills' latest popular picture, is playing its last times today at the West End theater. The story is laid in a steel mill and the scenes in the mill were "shot" in the steel mills of Birmingham, where Sills' company located for several weeks in making the picture. It is one of the best pictures ever provided for the popular Sills and he makes the most of his opportunities. A very good cast supports him.

The Fairfax.

"One Exciting Night," D. W. Griffith's masterpiece of mystery, is playing its last times today at the Fairfax theater in East Point. A delightful vein of humor running through the film offsets the moments of almost heart-stopping suspense and palpating thrills. The entire picture evokes Griffith's story direction and in the span of a night he gives you more plot and more thrills than the ordinary director could in a story covering several months. Fred Thompson, western star, who "left the pulpit for the saddle," is seen in his latest western thriller, "The Devil Quemado," on Saturday.

81 Theater Tonight.

"Midnight Frolic"—Everything is all set for the gigantic colored revue, "Desires of 1927," which occupies the main portion of the bill tonight at the Eighty-One theater on Decatur street. Some of the biggest and most popular colored stars in the country are seen with the "Desires of 1927" revue and all indications are for an early sell-out. "Voodoo," a delightful vein of humor running through the film offsets the moments of almost heart-stopping suspense and palpating thrills. The entire picture evokes Griffith's story direction and in the span of a night he gives you more plot and more thrills than the ordinary director could in a story covering several months. Fred Thompson, western star, who "left the pulpit for the saddle," is seen in his latest western thriller, "The Devil Quemado," on Saturday.

Adelaide Hall, who needs no introduction to those who have seen the famous New York company of "Shuffle Along," is starred in the "Desires of 1927" company. She was with the "Shuffle Along" company during its entire run and was acclaimed by all critics. In addition,

TEXAS BRIBERY PROBE TO BEGIN

Austin, Texas, February 3.—(AP)—An investigating committee of the Texas house tomorrow will begin an inquiry into charges of bribery filed against Representatives H. H. Moore of Cooper and F. A. Dale of Bonham.

The legislators were arrested by state rangers last night after they were alleged to have accepted $1,000 in marked bills from Willis Chamberlain, Houston optometrist, to influence their stand on an optometry licensing bill introduced by Moore.

Chamberlain is expected to be a witness against the representatives. He is reported to have laid a trap for Moore and Dale.

The investigating committee of nine was named today by the speaker of the house and will organize tomorrow morning. No witnesses had been summoned tonight. Moore and Dale are at liberty on $2,000 bond. They waived preliminary hearing in justice court.

WHY DID MILLS CHANGE HIS MIND? GARNER DEMANDS

Washington, February 3.—(AP)—House republicans were asked today by Representative Garner, democrat, Texas, why the resignation of Representative O. L. Mills, of New York, was announced in the house yesterday, and withdrawn later in Speaker Longworth's private office.

"Why did Mills, after a visit to the white house, decide to remain in the house instead of immediately accepting the duties of the under secretary of the treasury?" demanded the Texan.

Then, without waiting for a reply, he proceeded:

"I don't know whether Mills is to stay because of the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill, that is coming up; whether it is because of the alien property or whisky bill, or whether the president feels there isn't another member on the republican side who has the capacity to put over his bills."

Garner then said he considers Mills perhaps the ablest man in the house on taxation, and regretted to see him leave.

FLORIDA, GEORGIA MAY HOLD JOINT FETE AT BRIDGE

Tallahassee, February 3.—(AP)—Florida and Georgia may join in celebrating the opening of the St. Mary's river bridge, it was announced today at the state road department.

A number of communications have been received from Georgia suggesting the joint celebration, he said.

BUILDING PERMITS GAIN AT WAYCROSS

Waycross, Ga., February 3.—(Special.)—During January, 1927, Waycross practically trebled the record of January, 1926, for new construction, despite the fact that 1926 more than quadrupled the record.

During January, 1926, the building permits amounted to $37,775; compared with $100,340 for January, 1927.

These permits included one church, four filling stations, three automobile garages, one storage warehouse, and nine residences.

TEX RICKARD'S CAULIFLOWER EXPOSURE REVEALED TO SIX

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.
(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

New York, February 3.—One way or another, the large herd of heavyweight prize fighters that stampeded in the corridors outside Mr. Tex Rickard's office a few months ago, seeking whom they might eliminate or vice versa, has now been reduced to a group of six, including one lone surviving imported specimen, Paolino Uzcudun, who may be eliminated any day now.

Those six are Jimmy Maloney, Jack Delaney, Jack Sharkey, Michael McGuire, Knute Hansen and as yet unnamed Paolino, himself. They are cross-matched, in tournament style, Maloney against Delaney, Sharkey against McGuire and Hansen against Paolino, so that by the end of March the herd will have been reduced to three.

Although Mr. Rickard and the other promoters who cooperated with him in the great public work of finding an opponent for Gene Tunney, have taken a generous profit, their service to the public has been in proportion to their rewards. They have relieved a rather alarming congestion and averted a ham-and-egg famine in New York. Furthermore, all but one of the eliminated heavyweights seem to have been eliminated permanently, which means that large bloc of man-power has been released for such honest toil as bar tending, door opening and other stupendous labors generally favored by eliminated heavyweights.

Maloney Hard Worker. Jimmy Maloney has been the most industrious eliminator for he has dismissed three members of the original herd and he has the reputation of having imported. They were Arthur Kulkovitch, known briefly to pugilism as Arturo DeKuh, Franz Diener, the genial Frankfurter from Frankfurt, and Harry Persson, the Swedish mated comic from Sweden whose chest was adorned with much portraiture resembling Moon Mullins and Andrew Gump.

Hansen eliminated Monte Munich, McTigue did as much for Paul Belenbach, Sharkey allayed the mild menace of Harry Wills and Delaney popped Bud Gorman on the chin. Gorman is an intellectual, however, like Munn and Tunney himself, and it is likely that he too, will decide to withdraw from pugilism as soon as he comes to.

Paolino has not eliminated anyone yet, although he does claim to have killed a private hog with a punch of the snout while hunting in Florida recently. Having been told that heavyweight prize fighters were known as hams in the American language, Paolino was the victim of a little confusion in this instance, for he assumed that all hams were regarded as the equivalent of heavyweight prize fighters. Thus while he slew the hog in Florida, he entered a claim, stating that he had eliminated four hams. Incidentally, he thought the hog was wild and he was much put out to learn that it was a private pig, valued at $9.

A Handicap Man. Mr. Rickard has entered Paolino in the tournament as a handicap man, accepting him on the strength of his European record and on March 3 he will fight Hansen. There is a bare chance that Paolino and Hansen will eliminate one another in this bout as Hansen is not very good and there is no reason to suspect that Paolino is any better.

Complicating matters slightly, Delaney has been ordered to fight not more than 175 pounds when he fights Maloney, who weighs about 195 pounds. The cauliflower commission issued this decree because Delaney is the light heavyweight champion and the weight for his class is 175. The fact that he is not fighting a light heavyweight has no bearing on the reasoning of the cauliflower commission as the commission has never been accused of reasoning.

Thus far Jack Dempsey has not been considered a member of the herd. When the eliminations have reached the last two, Mr. Rickard will match Dempsey with one of the survivors, if possible, but posses of citizens who observed Dempsey's peculiar prize fight with Gene Tunney last fall will indulge in demonstrations in an endeavor to dissuade him.

Rosenberg Is Above Weight on Eve of Bout

BY HARRY NEWMAN.
(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

New York, February 3.—Charley Phil Rosenberg, bantamweight champion, and Bushey Graham, the elastic Italian from Utica, are scheduled to fight for 15 rounds in the New Madison Square Garden tomorrow night. It may be for the bantam title, and then again it may not. There is a suspicion in many quarters that Rosenberg, who resembled one of those old Philadelphia lightweights when he started to train for the jam, will be unable to make the required 118 1/2 pounds after a strenuous workout and that he would be well within that 115 figure tomorrow.

Also Charley declared he would be as strong as a bull when he faces Graham and that he would knock Bushey seven ways from Sunday.

However, if Rosenberg steps in a fraction of a pound over the regulation bantam limit he blows his title without as much as striking a blow. That is in accordance with Char's agreement with the New York state boxing commissioners, an unprecedented procedure in the boxing game: Rosenberg can't win or retain the title unless he can make the weight. Even a knockout victory then would not save his championship insofar as New York state is concerned.

Has Gang Guessing. Graham can take the title by winning the decision over Rosey, but the situation has the gang guessing. But if Rosenberg decides to relinquish all claim for the privilege of winning in overweight and strong enough to cope with the high stepping challenger, what then?

I don't think Rosenberg will be strong if he makes the weight. Also

LOWRY QUINT IS DEFEATED BY GULF FIVE

The Gulf Orange Disc five successfully repelled the attack of the Atlanta Lowry team, in the feature game of the City league at the Athletic club Thursday night. The final score was 41 to 13. The Knights of Columbus won a hard-fought game from Terra Cotta, 20 to 22. Southern Bell beat the Power company, 21 to 13, and the 122d infantry lost to Atlantic Steel, 14 to 10.

Nichols, of the Gulf quint, played a fine floor game, and came out of the fray with a total of 19 points to his credit. The Gulfers had a superior passing attack in addition to a number of players who were good field goal shots. Caldwell, Atlanta Lowry center, led his team with seven points. The K. C. Terra Cotta game came near being an upset. The K. C. have lost only to the Gulf in the City league and they were expected to have an easy victory. Due to the work of Clarke, Terra Cotta forward, the game was hard-fought from start to finish. Clarke shooting 14 points, McKiney was high for the winners with 10 points.

Southern Bell had a tough time winning from the Power company, but finally came out on top. Brittingham was high scorer with 10 points. Endicott scored six points for his team.

The Steel Company-infantry was loosely played game. Neither of the teams were able to make numerous field goals, and their passwork was ragged. Cauldwell, with eight points, led the steel quint, while Pittman, with three, led the infantrymen.

BROWNING BEATS DAVISCOURT IN ROUGH BATTLE

Fans Are Given Plenty of Action in Davis-Court-Brown-

Tactics—Dick Takes First Fall.

Daviscourt Go Fall.
A few minutes after this episode Daviscourt succeeded in heaving the lifting form of Browning from the rig in the same spot and when Jim

The second and final fall came by the same route. Jones applied his body scissors again, but this time he came out of a toe hold into the scissors, a feat of marvelous agility. No one seemed to know just how the Texan accomplished the transfer, but the fact remains that Sauer went down to a feat in two straight falls.

To say the affair was rough is treating the boys with whitewash. It was rougher than rough. This is not to say that the boys were bad. A total of 26 fouls called, 16 of them being committed by J. P. C. and 10 by the Y.

are sure to suffer a staggering casualty toll.

Scoring Starts.

Wilkinson made a charity chunk effective for one point to start the second half.

Adcock shot two floor baskets in a row. Wilkinson dropped another floor shot and sank two free throws. Adcock sank a free one and the Y sealed with 12 points to their credit.

During this time Hirsch had sank one floor shot and Klein had done likewise.

This eight-point advantage was the

Slams Salaams

By Louise Dooly

RADIO has at last justified its being. Irving Berlin composed the air of a best seller Thursday night at Palm Beach, telephoned it by long distance at 4 o'clock in the morning to his orchestra and in New York, who put in the background, and turned it over to Lucien Bori the same day.

That night, just 24 hours after Berlin got the inspiration, or whatever he uses, Miss Bori's singing of the new song was put on the air through a New York broadcasting station, linked up with 26 others, and the news tells us with a straight face that perhaps 10,000,000 people heard its first performance.

And just to think! In the old day, a palpitating public had to wait for a Berlin masterpiece sometimes as long as a week or even a month while the work went through the routine of the old-fashioned kind of publication. The name of Mr. Berlin's newest chit d'oeuvre is highly appropriate to the manner of its projection. It is called "What Does It Matter?"

Why So Pessimistic? CORRESPONDENT who gets as lonesome as I do for the spoken drama chides me for suggesting that the Little Theater movement can ever hope to restore a "legitimate" stage.

"Do you realize how much unselfish ambition such projects imply? How much hard work must be done for an abstract cause? How little thanks come to the most intelligent of the workers? And above all, that there is no profit in it to individual or group; indeed, more often than not, a loss?"

I do realize all these things, but against them I would place the evening progress of the drama's sister art, music. The best class of music is almost what you might call popular in America now, but its supporters do not have to look back so very many years to see its beginnings in almost any American city.

If they can so look back, they will see the first steps to just forward good music accompanied by just such hardships as my correspondent describes of local conditions now in play producing.

Music too, was once scorned as the diversion of "long haired men and short haired women" (which sounds funny, now, in more ways than one). Yet in 1927 music—high class music—may be called one of the most prosperous of American industries.

But the taste for music, somebody will object, was not developed by local amateur performances; it had to be built on the hearing of great artists imported for concert or opera.

Students of musical conditions would contradict that, and the evidence they would put forward would be the superior advancement in music of those cities which have developed their own choral bodies, orchestras, schools of music. There, they will show you, is music a vital part of the people's life.

BUT why talk about music in a department which has for at least one of its prime ambitions that of being read?

A woman citizen much interested in the promotion of a symphony orchestra project in a certain American city, approached an editor of a great daily with regard to publicity for the orchestra's subscription list.

"Why," she asked, "did you not use such and such an article about our symphony on file for yesterday's paper?"

"Sorry," he answered, "but it was crowded out."

"Why," she said again, and this time she pointed to a column article in the offending edition about the growth of hog raising in the state and its effect on prosperity. "Why didn't you leave that out?"

"Because," answered the editor, "people are interested in hogs and they are not interested in symphonies."

OH, well! A milliner phoned me yesterday that she had some hats just from New York with large head sizes. So I put on the hat I have, such as it is, and hastened to town.

Even if I could have got 'em on—"They are so like the hats women wore last fall and even last spring," I remonstrated, "that there would be no excitement in getting a new one."

The milliner did not deny my charge. On the contrary—"I have postponed my buying trip to New York for 10 days or so," she said, "because our representatives there inform me that there is absolutely nothing new. The designers are groping, but they are developing nothing novel."

"In that case, women will be reduced after a while to a standardization like that of men's hats," I hinted. "That is exactly what many people in the hat business, including the designers and the wholesalers, believe," she admitted.

Well, of course, it takes a head of hair to carry, say, a picture hat.

IN the evolution of women's clothes to their present triumph of comfort, the hat, by the way, is the only garment which does not conform.

A man takes his hat off and puts it on.

A woman pulls hers off and pulls it on. (And I mean the dominant type of woman, the one with bobbed hair.) Her hat is not smart unless it has a band tight enough to stop circulation.

Fortunately, in France, anyway, what you might call appliques of false hair have been designed to cover the bald spots induced by these inordinately close fitting bands. An invention which is fortunate, in that the hats for this season are tighter than ever.

The situation ought to be considered by anti-feminists a hopeful one. It shows that women with all their modernism are just women.

THE newest style in women's hose, by the way, is quite logical. The clocks, instead of reaching from the ankle up, start at the top of the stocking, and extend half way down.

DYING IN RUSSIA

COSTS TOO MUCH,

PAPER COMPLAINS

Moscow, Russia, February 3.—(AP)—Complaints are being made of the high cost of dying in Russia. Declaring coffins are "articles of first necessity to every citizen" the Workers' Gazette, the official newspaper of the city, complains that the duties of municipal authorities is to place the price of coffins within the reach of every dead man.

The Gazette says "even the simplest workman's funeral costs $75, which is beyond the means of most proletarian families. The coarsest pine wood coffins, covered with cheap cloth, cost $20, with no reduction to workers."

"While we live, we must prepare for economical deaths, we must urge our cooperatives and municipalities to provide cheaper coffins and cheaper graves," the paper says.

JARDINE PRAISES COTTON CHAMPIONS

Washington, February 3.—(AP)—"Low prices for farm products do not necessarily mean farming at a loss," said Secretary Jardine today in welcoming 10 prize winning cotton growers of the southern states. Speculation about the future of the cotton-growing industry can be answered by the efficient methods of these growers, he added.

The prize winners included Miss Edna Daniels, Nacooches county, Texas; George T. Swearingen, Trenton, S. C.; Guy Harrell, Brownsville, Tenn.; J. M. Fulgham, Utica, Miss.; H. N. Cox, Millen, Ga.; Pierce Adams, Bruno, Ark.; R. E. Smith, Johnston, S. C.; C. T. Connella, Alexandria, La.; G. Mont Adams, Tyler, Texas, and Elster Beall, Wilson, Ark.

"Records show you have been able to grow cotton at a cost of seven cents a pound and less," Jardine said, "and you can sell at a profit in a season of 11 and 12 cents."

He pointed out the records of several individuals, saying, "These farmers deserve the plaudits of the nation for pointing the way to more business-like methods of agriculture." Ambassador Cruchaga, of Chile, presented watches to the prize winners at a luncheon at his embassy.

Philobosian Urges Public

To Pay Cash for Home

Furnishings and Save

Invites Comparison of Prices and Quality With Any Special Sale Anywhere at Any Time.

Anyone who visits the beautiful store of Stephen Philobosian, Inc., can appreciate the exceptional values that are being offered every day in the year on distinctive furniture. This applies also to rugs—including Oriental and domestic. During this month of sensational "special sales" of furniture the public is especially urged to come to our store and compare our prices with any special sale prices anywhere.

Stephen Philobosian, Inc., never conducts a special sale, but as soon as the merchandise enters this store it is marked down to rock bottom figures—figures that are only possible with our well-known policy of selling only for cash.

In other words, when you come to this store and buy furniture or rugs at what you know is a bargain price, you also have the satisfaction of knowing you are getting new merchandise from our regular stock—not shopworn goods that must be closed out at "sacrifice prices" nor merchandise that has been bought especially for a sale.

Philobosian's reputation for low prices is known throughout the south-east. The policy of selling for cash enables such low prices to the public that many customers have come from adjoining states to make purchases, finding that they could even pay freight and effect a saving by buying from Philobosian.

Another great satisfaction in getting your home furnishings from Philobosian is the fact that you know you are getting the latest vogue in whatever you buy.

Ideas and designs in home furnishings change from time to time, but the staff of experienced salesmen at this store is qualified to advise all prospective purchasers and they have the merchandise at the store to assure satisfaction.

Anyone planning the purchase of home furnishings of any kind owes it to himself or herself to go to Philobosian's and see the really big saving that is possible by paying cash—(adv.)

MEN WHO MADE THE WORLD

George Washington

By DR. ELLIOTT SHORING, NOTED HISTORIAN

WASHINGTON'S BODY LAY IN STATE AND HIS LOVING FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS CAME FOR THE LAST FAREWELL. IN ACCORDANCE WITH HIS REQUEST, HIS REMAINS WERE NOT PLACED IN THE VAULT UNTIL THE FOURTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 18. THE MOURNFUL PROCESSION WOUND AROUND MOUNT VERNON TO LAY HIM AT REST IN THE OLD TOMB ON THE HILLSIDE. IN THE FUNERAL PROCESSION THE MOURNERS WERE FOLLOWED BY ROOPS FROM ALEXANDRIA, THEN FOUR CLERGYMEN DRESSED IN WHITE. NEXT CAME WASHINGTON'S FAVORITE HORSE, LED BY TWO GROOMS; THEN EIGHT MASONS BORE THE REMAINS OF THE GREATEST MAN OF HIS TIME. FINALLY CAME FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS.

WASHINGTON'S WILL IS A REMARKABLE DOCUMENT, WRITTEN BY HIMSELF AND DISTINGUISHED BY ITS CHARITY, PRECISION AND MINUTENESS. TO HIS BELOVED WIFE, MARTHA, THE GENERAL LEFT, WITH MINOR EXCEPTIONS, THE USE OF THE ENTIRE ESTATE. TO HIS ADOPTED GRANDSON, WASHINGTON PARKE CUSTIS, HE WILLED A LOT IN THE CITY OF WASHINGTON AND THE MAGNIFICENT ARLING PROPERTY OVERLOOKING THE POTOMAC RIVER. THIS IS NOW ARLINGTON, OUR NATIONAL CEMETERY, IN WHICH LIE BURIED THOUSANDS OF AMERICAN HEROES. AMONG OTHER REQUESTS WERE DUTIES TO A NATIONAL UNIVERSITY TO BE FOUNDED IN THE CITY OF WASHINGTON AND TO THE THEN EXISTING WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY, NOW CALLED WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY. IN HIS WILL HE EXPRESSED THE WISH THAT A NEW TOMB BE ERRECTED AT A SPOT HE HAD SELECTED FOR IT. IN 1837 THIS WAS DONE, AND THE BODY OF GEORGE AND MARTHA WASHINGTON WERE REMOVED TO IT, PLACED IN TWO MARBLE SARCOPHAGI IN FULL VIEW OF THOSE WHO WISHED TO VISIT IT. IT IS TODAY A NATIONAL SHRINE.

Song Written by Atlantan
Given Ovation by Jay-Cees

COMPOSITION BY RALPH T. JONES SEEN AS HIT
BY HERB MCUSKER.
Blushing, unseen, a song-bird burst into song in Atlanta Thursday when "Your Home's in My Heart," a love song written and composed by Ralph T. Jones, of the editorial staff of The Constitution, was played and sung publicly for the first time before an enthusiastic assemblage at the weekly luncheon of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The initial rendition was capably handled by E. E. Sheridan, baritone pupil of Signor E. Volpi, with the pianist at the piano. It scored an instant success and was accorded tremendous applause.
In order that an unbiased opinion might be obtained through the song's reception, the audience was not informed that it was to participate in the first public hearing of a creation by an Atlantan. The acclaim with which the composition was received vindicated emphatically the unanimous prophecy of music critics who had previously heard it.

"Your Home's in My Heart" tells that never old tale of springtime love in a manner distinctively individual. Throughout the song an alluring strain dominates and tends to leave with the hearer that unconscious impression characteristic to popular music. Mr. Jones holds a copyright on the words and music and the song will be published in the near future by one of the leading houses of New York.

For years Mr. Jones, himself a musician of no little talent, has written musical criticisms for The Constitution and has established himself as an authority on things musical in the south. The song introduced Thursday is the first such composition from his pen.

J. C. Altrock, sales expert of Hartford, Conn., was principal speaker at the luncheon. Julian V. Boehm, Atlanta insurance man and no mean handler of playing cards, performed a few "presto-change" tricks for the audience. Several musical numbers were given under supervision of Carl LaFell.

U. S. JUDGE HIT
FOR ACTIVITIES
IN STATE AFFAIRS

Oklahoma City, February 3.—(AP)—A resolution memorializing congress to investigate the "pernicious political activity" of United States District Judge R. L. Williams was introduced in the state senate today by Senator Jess Pullen, of Sulphur.

The resolution grew out of the appearance of Judge Williams before the senate roads and highways committee earlier in the week. Local papers said the jurist protested against appointment of Cecil Moore, of Muskogee, as chairman of the new state highway commission.

Moore's appointment, along with those of four other members of the commission, was rejected yesterday by the senate.
Judge Williams is a democrat. He was war-time governor of Oklahoma. After heated argument the senate voted to expunge the resolution and arguments from the records.

Frank L. Stanton's Best Poems
To Be Published in Book Form

A book which embodies much of the life work of Georgia's famed poet laureate, Frank L. Stanton, will be published in Atlanta about the first of April by the newly-formed Byrd Publishing company, according to an announcement Thursday by Charles P. Byrd, president of the company.

The publication, representing the most popular of Stanton's work since 1904, will be the first to leave the presses of the Atlanta concern, and will inaugurate a new industry in Atlanta and the south as a whole.

The work, now being compiled by the late poet's son, Frank L. Stanton, Jr., and his daughter, Mrs. Marcelle McGhee, will include many selections from the column which he conducted in The Constitution for so many years, together with much of his writing hitherto unpublished. Preliminary plans call for the publication of two volumes of which 10,000 will be printed for the first edition. These are to be priced at $1.50 and will be printed on the finest antique book paper, cloth bound and gold stamped front and back.

Mr. Byrd was optimistic about the future of the Stanton book due to the widespread popularity of the author, and stated that he expected with succeeding editions to bring at least half a million copies before the public.

Lawton B. Evans, of Augusta, educator and author, is editor of the Byrd Publishing company, will supervise the work of publication.

FAMOUS "DUDE RANCH"
RAVAGED BY FLAMES

Sheridan, Wyo., February 3.—(AP)—A few blackened walls and smoldering logs were all that remained today of the central unit of Eaton brothers famous "dude" ranch near here, a place where thousands of eastern tourists have sought a touch of frontier life in the past 20 years.
Fire which started from a broken stove pipe in the main dining cabin yesterday afternoon spread to the main ranch and office buildings despite the frantic efforts of scores of nearby ranchers summoned to the scene. By evening all the main buildings were razed. The loss was placed in excess of $50,000.

New York, February 3.—(By The Associated Press.)—The cotton market was higher today on reports of continued steadiness in the spot markets and firmness in Liverpool. May contracts sold up to 13.70 in late trading or within 7 points in last month's best level, and closed at 13.60. The general market closed steady, at net advances of 7 to 11 points.

The market opened steady at an advance of 3 to 7 points in response to higher Liverpool cables. Some shorts were selling at the start, as well as realizing or liquidation, supplied the early demand and caused setbacks to about yesterday's closing figures. Trade buying, presumably to fill prices, checked the decline, however, and the market firmed up again during the afternoon when sentiment seemed to be influenced by private reports of a steady advance in the eastern belt markets.

Reports of prospects for early action on farm relief legislation, may have had sentimental influence on the advance which extended to 13.49 for March and 14.10 for October contracts in late trading, or about 8 to 12 points net higher. Last month's were within a point or two of the best.

Private reports that sales of fertilizer tags in Alabama and Georgia were running far behind last year's were also mentioned in connection with the afternoon advance, although traders generally felt it was still too early for any definite opinion as to either the use of fertilizer or the average likely to be planted this spring. Optimism on the export outlook was encouraged by reports that further shipments of cotton were to be made out of Galveston to Bombay during February and April, and that Bombay mills had been buying American cotton owing to the shortage of Indian cotton.

Private cables said the advance in Liverpool was due to trade calling with Manchester and continental buying, and there had been encouraging sales of cotton cloth for shipment to India.

Exports today 47,001, making 6,808,825 so far this season. Port receipts 93,317. U. S. port stocks 2,574,418.

SPOTS IN NEW YORK

New York, January 3.—Spot cotton steady; middling 13.80.

OFFERS SCARCE

COTTON SCORES GAIN.

New Orleans, February 3.—(By The Associated Press.)—Good Liverpool cables, covering by shorts and a scarcity of offerings combined to give the market a firm opening. The close was quiet with prices a trifle under the day's high.

Liverpool cables gave the first push to the upward movement and the opening was 2 to 4 points up with early trading giving enough force to the climb to carry the market to points above the previous close before it crumpled slightly in a period of recession. A backward fluctuation of two points was followed by a recovery to gains and mid-session saw prices 6 to 8 points above yesterday's close.

Possibilities of the ultimate passage of the agricultural bill added to the advance and prices made new highs in the last hour of trading. The high was March at 13.49; 13.65 and July 13.82 after opening at 13.42. March, May 13.61 and July 13.77.

Exports 47,001 bales.

REDISCOUNT RATE CUT

Paris, February 3.—(By The Associated Press.)—The Bank of France today reduced its discount rate to 5.1-2 per cent. The reduction of 1 per cent, from 6.1-2 to 5.1-2, was taken in financial circles as an indication of the government's confidence in the evolution of its financial program and a gesture of coordination with the industrial concerns in the present period of readjustment.

The last previous change in the discount rate of the Bank of France was on December 16, when the rate was reduced from 7.1-2 to 6.1-2 per cent.

Washington, February 3.—(By The Associated Press.)—Further improvement in the fiscal condition of France is seen by Secretary Mellon in the reduction of the rediscount rate by the Bank of France.

The secretary's reports indicate that the French economic situation has been steadily improving.

AGNES SCOTT STUDENTS TO HEAR AMUNDSEN

Decatur, Ga., February 3.—(Special.)—The great dirigible, the Norge, almost destroyed itself and its human freight during its flight from Spitzbergen to Alaska by way of the north pole, will be graphically told by Captain Roald Amundsen, the noted arctic explorer, as one of the incidents in his lecture, "By Dirigible From Rome to Teller," to be given on February 12, at Agnes Scott college.

That experience probably was one of the most harrowing that has ever come to any explorer or any flier. The Norge had reached the north pole, Captain Amundsen and his associates had taken observations, and they had proceeded on towards Nome, Alaska, discovering the ice pole, the geographic center of the ice pack, on the way. It was after passing out of this region, 400 miles south of the north pole, that they began to run into serious trouble. Before long they realized that they were lost in a heavy fog, with the danger of colliding with the high Alaskan mountains ever present.

Captain Amundsen plans to tell the complete story of the Amundsen-Ellsworth expedition, from its inception to its conclusion, in his local lecture. Motion pictures that are said to be among the most remarkable ever taken will give a striking vividness to his talk. The trip was started from Rome, where the dirigible had been purchased from the Italian government, and made stops at Pulham, England; Oslo, Leningrad, Vadsoe and Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, from which point it started on its cruise of polar exploration on the morning of May 11, 1926. It landed in Veller 71 hours later, having been buffeted about by storms for 25 hours between Point Barrow, Alaska, and its place of landing.

DR. JOSEPH LUSTRAT PASSES AT ATHENS

Athens, Ga., February 3.—(Special.)—Dr. Joseph Lustrat, 68, head of the romance languages department of the University of Georgia, for 30 years, died today following a week's illness with heart disease.

Dr. Lustrat was a native of Vichy, France, coming to this country early in life. He began his work as an educator at Shorter college, leaving there to become connected with the University of Georgia.

The French government bestowed a number of honors on him and the University of Georgia conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Letters in 1922.

He is survived by his widow and three daughters, Mrs. P. H. McHatt, of Athens; Mrs. Owen Coleman, of Augusta; and Mrs. Fleming Wine-coff, of Atlanta.

Funeral rites will be held here tomorrow afternoon from St. Joseph's Catholic church at 4 p. m. Fellow professors will act as pallbearers.

JOHN J. WILKINS FREED BY JURY IN ATHENS COURT

Athens, Ga., February 3.—(Special.)—John J. Wilkins, former president of the Guaranty Trust corporation of this city, now a defunct institution, was found not guilty of embezzlement of approximately $28,000 from the corporation in Clarke superior court today, when Judge W. W. Stark, of Commerce, directed a verdict.

This is the third embezzlement case against Mr. Wilkins, two of them resulting in acquittal and the other resulting in conviction and fine $1,000.

He appealed that case to a higher court, seeking a new trial.

JUPITER AND VENUS NEAR CONJUNCTION SAY ASTRONOMERS

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Chicago, Ill., February 3.—Jupiter and Venus, two of the most brilliant planets, will be in approximate celestial conjunction tomorrow night. Professor Philip Fox, director of the Dearborn observatory at Northwestern University, advises those who desire to view the phenomenon, to look at the point slightly above the western horizon shortly after sundown.

"The near-approach of these planets is only apparent," he said. "Jupiter is 483,300,000 miles from the sun, and Venus is 67,200,000. The earth is 92,900,000 miles from the sun. Although Jupiter is 11 times as large as Venus, the latter body will appear the brighter, because of the nearness to the central orb and the higher reflecting power of its surface."

GRAND SCOTTISH CONCERT PROVES POPULAR AFFAIR

Atlanta lovers of Scottish music were given a treat Thursday night at the Atlanta Woman's club auditorium when Cameron McLean, noted baritone, presented his grand Scottish concert.

Mr. McLean and other artists in the concert were given a warm ovation and on many numbers were called back again and again for encores. Mr. McLean has won much praise from critics in all parts of the country for his fine baritone voice and those attending the concert Thursday night agreed with advance notices of him.

In addition to Mr. McLean's songs, Miss Gladys Stewart, lyric soprano, sang, Misses Janet Kelly and Jessie Rossen, Highland dancers and the Ness brothers, instrumentalists, were also on the program. Miss Charles Chalmers was Mr. McLean's accompanist.

At the conclusion of the program Arthur Kreis, of the Atlanta Scottish association, under whose auspices the concert was given, made a short announcement of the death of Colonel William Lawson Peel, and Mr. McLean paid tribute to his memory with the song, "Going Home."

ARGUMENTS TO END NASH HEARING

Decatur, Ga., February 3.—(Special.)—Argument by attorneys Friday morning is expected to close the hearing before the grand jury on the charges of malfeasance in office preferred against L. T. E. Nash, commissioner of DeKalb county, in a petition signed by something like 25 persons last December. The hearing will convene at 9 o'clock and one argument on each side is expected to close the case.

The statement by Nash in his own defense was the feature in today's hearing. The veteran commissioner took up the charges one by one and explained them in detail. He denied vigorously that he was guilty of malfeasance in office and in regards to the charge that he had paid excessive sums for the collection of taxes on intangible properties, he cited the act of the grand jury in authorizing such a collector and stated that the collector was selected by the tax equalizers.

As to the charge that he had overpaid for work done in various activities in the county he held in detail how he had let many contracts after competitive bidding and how in each
